May Meeting

May speaker Marge Hookey gave us a humorous account of being a Friends of the Zoo Guide at the Healesville Sanctuary and telling us about it's history; beginning as a research facility for Sir Colin McKenzie in 1927 through the birth of the first platypus in captivity in the 1940s to the opening of the Australian

Wildlife Health Centre in 2005. This and reptiles in its first year and now treats more than 2000 a year in a Veterinary Hospital that is better equipped than many 3rd world people hospitals.

Healesville Sanctuary continues to grow with the recent addition of Tasmanian Devils to its animal collection. Captivating presentations and tours such as Birds of Prey, Parrots in Flight and the Burra Burra Yan ensure visitors connect in meaningful ways with wildlife in its natural habitat

In June Shaun Young, Senior Sergeant with the Victoria Police will talk about Australian Policing in PNG Solomon Islands and the Middle East.

Why not come along this month for a chat and a coffee. They could do with some more males, as could the walking group. Just think if there were some more men there we could solve the problems of the world rather than swap grand-child stories.

Next coffee club days is June 26th.

Career Choices

Like many young men, the boy didn't really know what he wanted to do, and he didn't seem too concerned about it. So one day, while the boy was away at school, his father, decided to try an experiment. He went in the boy's room and placed on his study table four objects. A Bible, A Dollar, A Bottle of Whiskey, and A Playboy Magazine. 'I'll just hide behind the door, I'll see which object he picks up. If it's the Bible, he's going to be a preacher. If he picks up the dollar, he's going to be a businessman. But if he picks up the bottle, he's going to be a no-good drunkard. And worst of all, if he picks up that magazine he's going to be a skirt-chasing bum.'

The man waited anxiously. The boy tossed his books on the bed, and as he turned to leave the room he spotted the objects on the table. With curiosity in his eye, he walked over to inspect them. He picked up the Bible and placed it under his arm. He picked up the dollar and dropped it into his pocket. He uncorked the bottle and took a drink while he admired this month's centrefold. 'Lord have mercy,' the father disgustedly whispered, 'He's going to be a politician!'

The Joy of Aging

An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house, and after eating the wives left the table and went into the kitchen. The two gentlemen were talking and one said "Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great. I would recommend it very highly."

The other gentleman asked, "What is the name of the restaurant?"

The first gentleman thought and thought and finally said, "What is the name of that flower that you give to someone you love? You know ...the one that's red and has thorns."

"Do you mean a rose?"

"Yes that's the one" replied the man. He then turned towards the kitchen and yelled, "Rose, what's the name of that restaurant we went to last night?"
